

The tempo of success

Photo: ©2007 Roscosmos

Soyuz climbs out from Baikonur Cosmodrome with its cluster of four Globalstar satellites

PROVING

Arianespace's Starsem affiliate successfully orbited four satellites on October 21 to augment the current Globalstar constellation. With this 1,726th flight of a Soyuz family vehicle, the workhorse launcher has once again demonstrated its reliability and accuracy for commercial customers worldwide.

arianespace
Service & Solutions

www.arianespace.com