

The tempo of success

The initial Helios II satellite was lofted by Ariane 5 in 2004

Arianespace launches the full range of spacecraft for security and defense missions. Helios IIB, the latest payload booked on Ariane 5, will further improve observation capabilities of Europe and its key allies when orbited in 2009.

arianespace

Service & Solutions

www.arianespace.com