

The tempo of success

Photo: ©ESA - S. Corvaja

Soyuz orbited the second developmental Galileo spacecraft, GIOVE-B, on April 27

FAMILY

Arianespace stands ready to deploy Europe's Galileo satellite constellation, utilizing the world's most capable launch vehicles – Ariane 5 and Soyuz. Two developmental Galileo spacecraft already have been orbited with Soyuz, providing an on-target startup for this new civilian-run navigation system.

Service & Solutions

www.arianespace.com