

arianespace
service & solutions

Tempo of Success

The first Automated Transfer Vehicle was successfully launched by Ariane 5 in 2008

CARGO

Ariane 5 has proven its capability to support the future of human space exploration. Additional heavy-lift resupply missions to orbit the Automated Transfer Vehicle will ensure the International Space Station's continued operation with deliveries of experiments, food, air and water for its permanent crew.

www.arianespace.com