

30 Years of Success

Photo: Orbital Sciences Corporation

To be built by Orbital Sciences Corporation, HYLAS 2 satellite will carry 24 active Ka-band user beams and four gateway beams

BROADBAND

Avanti Communications Group has entrusted Arianespace with the launch of its second high-speed Ka-band satellite, to be lofted from the Spaceport in the first half of 2012. This new spacecraft will expand Avanti's broadband data and video services across Africa, Eastern Europe and the Middle East.