

arianespace
service & solutions

Tempo of Success

Globalstar's second-generation satellites have a liftoff mass of approximately 700 kg. each

CONSTELLATION

Six Globalstar satellites are being readied for an October 19 launch on a Soyuz vehicle from Baikonur Cosmodrome. Arianespace has been contracted – via its Starsem affiliate – to orbit 24 such second-generation spacecraft, further building Globalstar's constellation for mobile satellite voice and data services.