30 Years of Success

Marking the VINASAT-2 contract are Arianespace Chairman & CEO Jean-Yves Le Gall, VNPT Chairman Pham Long Tran, and Tom Lawrence, Lockheed Martin Commercial Space Systems' Senior Manager, Customer Response Center

TRUST

VINASAT-2 will be orbited by Arianespace in 2012 aboard an Ariane 5 or Soyuz operating from the Spaceport. This new contract continues our successful cooperation with Lockheed Martin and the Vietnam Posts and Telecommunications Group (VNPT), which began with the 2008 launch of VINASAT-1 as Vietnam's first telecommunications satellite.
