

30 Years of Success

Helios 2B was placed into a Sun-synchronous polar orbit by Ariane 5

VISIONARY

Ariane 5's wrap-up mission of 2009 orbited the Helios 2B military reconnaissance satellite on behalf of France's DGA defense procurement agency for five European nation partners. Arianespace provides access to space from one of the world's most modern and secure launch sites.